

Grass Valley introduces EDIUS 9 with new floating licenses, enhanced interface and integrated HDR support

Grass Valley has announced the release of EDIUS 9, a new version of its professional video editing software. The software is designed to provide a more flexible and powerful editing environment for professional video editors. Key features include support for HDR (High Dynamic Range) video, a new floating license model, and an enhanced user interface. The software is available for Windows and Mac OS X. The release of EDIUS 9 marks a significant milestone in the company's commitment to providing high-quality video editing solutions to its users.

- Support for HDR video editing
- New floating license model
- Enhanced user interface
- Support for 4K video editing
- Support for SDR and HDR video
- Support for HDR video editing
- Support for Cinema Raw Light and Canon EOS C200, Raw video editing
- Support for 4K 50p/60p (Workgroup)
- Support for Mync video editing

"EDIUS 9 is a significant update to our professional video editing software, providing users with a more flexible and powerful editing environment. The new floating license model and enhanced user interface are key features that will help users work more efficiently and effectively. We are excited to see the software in use by professional video editors around the world. Grass Valley is committed to providing high-quality video editing solutions to its users, and EDIUS 9 is a testament to our commitment to excellence."

